I know you think about us
I never thought about you
You put your name with my name
I can't remember your name
My love is too good for you
I wish you'd go and give back what You've taken
And take back what you said
Well, I owe you nothin' more
I've spent millions

I know what you want
It's right here in my pocket
You can't touch it
'Cause you're bad with fragile things
I know this cause you broke my heart in two

Can't you find someone like me
At all those parties you love?
You come home wasted tonight
I can't sleep when you're locked out
Oh, yeah

I'm no one with the problem
I'd wish you'd go and give back what You've taken
And take back what you said
Well, I owe you nothin' more

I've spent millions

I know what you want
It's right here in my pocket
You can't touch it
'Cause you're bad with fragile things
I know this 'cause you broke my heart in two

I know what you want
It's right here in my pocket
You can't touch it
'Cause you're bad with fragile things
I know this 'cause you broke my heart (x2)

I wish I never dropped my wallet

With my last paycheck
You saw it
What didn't you wear that evening?
How could you look in that outfit?
