Maybe I'm Right

I'm trying to help you out here I'm trying for onse to be your friend

There's nothing left to see here

You're more drama than a sinking ship on fire

As you go down again and I'm trying not to leave

(Bridge)

Don't let the walls go caving in

Recommend the pills you take again

Cover all your tracks and make sure everybody knows

I can't look away this time something inside

Has gone away

(Chorus)

I wanna wake up and start again

I wanna wake up inside

I wanna wake up and start again

Maybe I'm wrong but I'm thinking I'm right

I'm trying to help you out here

I'm trying to keep you away from youreself

So tell me what you need

Take a big breathe sep back look around

See all the people who know that you're a mess

And why won't you belive

(Repeat Bridge and Chorus)

Don't let the walls go caving in

Recommend the pills you take again

Cover all your tracks and make sure everybody knows

I can't took away this time

No I can't look away this time something inside

Has gone away

(Repeat Chorus)

I wanna wake up and start again

I want to wake up inside

Wanna wake up and start agai
Maybe I'm wrong but I'm thinking it's right
