Well the cats & I will be playin',
You ought to make it there,
When that drummer hits a rim shot,
And almost busts a snare.

You put on your cat clothes,
And I will put on mine,
Together pretty baby,
We're gonna cruise on down the line.

Come on and cruise on out with me,
Won't you cruise on out with me.

Well the cat band will be playin',
C'mon and get your share,
I've got transportation,
And I can get you there.

Well I know your daddy's anxious,
That you toe the line,
I guess he's gonna blow his stack,
If you don't get home on time.

Come on and cruise on out with me,
Won't you cruise on out with me.

Yeah...

Well this feline band will pick it,
Just as long as you will stay,
The boys in the band will play all night,
If they would have their way.

You gonna dress up to the nines,
And look like somethin' else,
I'm gonna pull my alligator shoes,
Out from under the bed

Come on cruise on out with me,
Won't you cruise on out with me.

Well, that fat man plays that upright,
He freeze you at the knees,
This man's in full control,
Of 87 and one half keys.

In this full scale commotion,
The pace will never drop,
You better leave town gracefully,
If you're too pooped to pop.

Come on cruise on out with me,
Well, won't you cruise on out with me.

Well the cats & I will be playin',
You ought to make it there,
When that drummer hits a rim shot,
And almost busts a snare.

You put on your cat clothes,
And I will put on mine,
Together pretty baby,
We're gonna step on down the line.

Won't you cruise on out with me,
Come on, cruise on out with me.
Won't you cruise on out,
Cruise on out,
Cruise on out with me.

Won't you cruise on out,
Cruise on out,
Cruise on out,
Cruise on out with me.

Come on cruise on out,
Cruise on out,
Cruise on out,
Cruise on out with me.

Awwwhhhh...
