I feel so sick, so sick again
Just when I thought it went away
This time there's nothing I can take
To calm it down, to make it sleep

All this time spent waiting
For a cure that's just beyond reach
Beyond reach

One more forgotten day in line
One more desperate cling to control
Just don't wake up from this routine
This plastic mask covers everything

All this time spent waiting
For a cure that's just beyond reach
Beyond reach

I heard you say, you had the answer
For a quick fix, an easy way out
This time I'll try anything
To be so sedated, so secure

I feel so sick, so sick again
Just when I thought it went away
This time there's nothing I can take
To calm it down, to make it sleep

All this time spent waiting
For a cure that's just beyond reach
Beyond reach

I heard you say, you had the answer
For a quick fix, an easy way out
This time I'll try anything
To be so sedated, so secure
So secure, so secure, so secure
