(Rosanne Cash)

I walk through the wind, the snow and the rain
And no one is there when I fall
The sound of my heartbeat
Is all I have left me
But you know I once I had it all

The prayers of a fool are spoken in haste
And I'm just the one who would know
But I'm sending signals
'Cause I'm falling deeper
Than I thought I could go

Chorus
If there's a God on my side
Why don't she show her face?
If there's a God on my side
Could she live in this place?
If there's a God on my side
Is she inside these walls?
If there's a God on my side
Could she not hear me call?

The tears of the damned
Are falling on me
And mine are the first to go by
The moon starts to spinning
O'm standing frozen
When once I was alive

Chorus

And I keep on calling
Oh I keep on calling

Repeat First Verse

Chorus
