"absence from those we love is self from self - a deadly banishment."
-william shakespeare

Drivin' through tennessee
Not a house in sight
I think about all the times
We've held each other tight

I hear your voice on the phone
Before i go to bed
I lay awake all night long
With your face inside my head

I'm too far away to see you
And all i want is to be with you
And look into your eyes
And i feel so alone without you

I've got a thought
It keeps me sane
You've got to know it's true
No matter which Way i drive
I'll end up home with you

I'm too far away to see you
And all i want is to be with you
And look into your eyes
And i feel so alone without you

Say a prayer for me
And when you do
You know i'll say one too
I'll be thinking of
That special girl i love

I'm too far away to see you
And all i want is to be with you
And look into your eyes
And i feel so alone
I feel so alone

I feel so alone
Without you
