Lies are sweet and ordinary
Listen closely you'll hear it in me

Find my way back so I can downsize
Stayed up so late I could hear the sun rise
Be it quiet be it soon
When you sleep take my penance
Make me guilty

In your bed beneath my room
The water quickly covers you
Slowly I regain some feeling
My hands are blue my fingers bleeding

Lies are sweet and ordinary

In your bed beneath my room
The water quickly covers you
Slowly I regain some feeling
My hands are blue my fingers bleeding
