i was born without a name im gonna leave just the same and my children's children's names are my crusade
i gotta move fast the gypsy spell has been cast and i gotta make it last to mexico a travelin man has the plan a wanted man has the fire one will get to settle down one will always be a liar mamasita pretty please can i be your wanderin child? mamasita ive been lost, wanderin for miles and miles you see ive gotta move fast cus the gypsy spell has been cast
and i gotta make it last to mexico you see i got too much to lose with the reptilian blues the beat's much to slow i need somethin fast like my leadfoot on the gas like life down in mexico ill build you a cottage on a stone by the sea ive been good to the land so dont worry babe the land will be good to me and i will pay off the postman to deliver the paper smiles and shop in the junkmail so we're stylish in our prime we'll be on the outside looking in we'll live in our cottage on the fingertips of the ocean next to a city filled with love and devotion we'll make love in our fountain water splashing our sins away and bear fruit in our garden independence everyday
