There's a rough and a rocky side of life
Everybody have to go through grief and strife
But look on down the highway
'Cause there's better times a comin'
To the rough and a rocky side of life.

Well, if you look all around find the world that's turned
you down
And you can't make that for sun won't shine wait for another day
You might take forever but there's good times a comin'
To the rough and a rocky side of life.

If you feel likr the world has caused you pain
And you think that your life has been in vain There's better times a comin' somewhere along the pathway
To the rough and a rocky side of life.

Well, if you look all around find the world that's turned
you down
And you can't make that for sun won't shine wait for
another day
You might take forever but there's good times a comin'
To the rough and a rocky side of life.
