"Your Tears"

Visit "Your Tears" on MotoLyrics.com

I would rather die than to see you cry
How could such a bright day turn so blue?
How could I have been so cruel to you?

Please, please put away your tears
You know it breaks my heart to see you sad

Let's not fight anymore
Let's stay here on the floor
I'll take back every mean thing I said
Maybe say something useful instead

Please, please put away your tears
You know it breaks my heart to see you sad

Selfish as I tend to be, I'm on your side now
Just so we don't say things we'll regret
'Cause this time is all that we get
Our day will come to an end, so let's spend it well

Please, please put away your tears
You know it breaks my heart to see you sad
