(Chorus)

Horses, and I'm feeling
Yes I'm OK, there'll be Horses

(Verse)

Strike a match out on my torn through jeans
Pulled out a cigarette and I've fallen to my knees
Asked myself why the sky it is so gray
It's all because I left, and I know she turned away

(Chorus)

There'll be
Horses, and I'm feeling
Yes I'm OK, there'll be Horses

(Verse)

Times gone by now, so I called her on the phone
The phone keeps ringing on, no message, no ones home
I finally got through to her, she said just leave this town
I'm not gonna do that, cause I'm gonna turn things around

(Chorus)

There'll be
Horses, and I'm feeling
Yes I'm OK, there'll be Horses

(Verse)

I strike a match out on my torn through jeans
Pulled out a cigarette and I've fallen to my knees
Asked myself why the sky it is so gray
It's all because I left, and I know she turned away

(Chorus)

There'll be
Horses, and I'm feeling
Yes I'm OK, there'll be Horses
