(Verse)

Shadows on the sidewalk painting pictures in the night
Hungry people waiting for a dime to save their life
Keep on walking pay attention to the ones that have no need
Keep on walking cause the pain's from my head unto my knees

(Chorus)

If time was spent just to think about
Another person and their plight
They might, find the world wearing light
The world, where we all reside
I don't know but I know that I'm all right
You fail to see me when you fail to see the light
The answer's clear, it's all dressed in white... light

(Verse)

No faces they hold, no names to be found
But the inner peace you seek, and it crumbles to the ground
You justify your life, just another chain to be bound
It's here waiting for you, to take this crown

(Chorus)

If time was spent just to think about
Another person and their plight
They might, find the world wearing light
The world, where we all reside
I don't know but I know that I'm all right
You fail to see me when you fail to see the light
The answer's clear, it's all dressed in white... light
