The clock is ticking, and time is running out.
She used to have hope, she used to have purpose.
But now she's wishing that your here.
Now she's wishing that your...

Time passes by; this is not a lie.
This promise is true.
This promise lives in you.
Time passes by; this is not a lie.
This promise is true.
This promise lives in you.

Now she's walking; in the city of Glitz and Glamour.
Wishing that she wasn't.
She tries to hold on, but failure is in her eyes.
She doesn't understand why it never works out.
Her heart is empty, her heart is...

Time passes by; this is not a lie.
This promise is true.
This promise lives in you.
Time passes by; this is not a lie.
This promise is true.
This promise lives in you.

This is the promise!
Hold on your almost there.
This is the promise!
Hold on your almost there!
This promise lives in you!

Time passes by; this is not a lie.
This promise is true.
This promise lives in you.

This promise lives in you... in you... in you...
This promise lives in you...
