When did it change
Was it my fault
Did I push you away

I, I tried so hard
But I never knew
It was falling apart

So now you wanna go
And just walk away
Maybe we could try
Why don't you stay, hey

Love can bring you down
It lifts you up
It spits you out
Love can make you shout
It pulls you in
And turns you around

So, is it too late
Let's start again
Go back to that place

We, we could be stars
Just you and me
It won't be that hard

But now you wanna go
And just walk away
Maybe we could try
Why don't you stay, hey

Love can bring you down
It lifts you up
It spits you out
Love can make you shout
It pulls you in
And turns you 'round

When you're drivin down the road
And you got no where to go

Your gonna think of me
now youÂ're feelin so alone
Cause thereÂ's no one there to hold
ItÂ's all gonna be just fine
