Do they lie to you?
Are their, are their fingers bloody?
If you asked questions would you
Feel the fool?

Mass acceptance, feeds the
Flame of propaganda
Do we trust them or are
We their tools?

Painting pictures watch them
With their bloody fingers
Smear the message
In our supple minds

Are you sure you're thinking?
Are you sure you're seeing?
Would you know the truth?
And could you smell a lie?

Conscious
And the world is dreaming
The dream is death
The dream is death

Official words are spoken
Do you, do you hear the message?
Brace yourselves they say
So you try

When the time comes soon now
Will you wear their colors?
Will your blood spill for them
Or will you realize?

Conscious
And the world is dreaming
Freedom
Demands an equal price

I'll fight, I'll fight
In an insurrection

You'll taste the steel of the back of my hand
I'm not dying slowly

I'll fight, I'll fight
In an insurrection
None are free with a king in the land
And I'll fight forever

And the Gods are sworn to treason
Let the battle rage until the world is free of chains
When the wicked fall, may the clouds roar in triumph
And the lightning laugh as it basks in their shame

So your Gods are sworn to treason
So the battle rage until the world is free of chains
When the wicked fall, may the clouds roar in triumph
And the lightning laugh as it basks in their shame

I'll fight, I'll fight
For an insurrection
I'll fight, I'll fight
For an insurrection

I'll fight, I'll fight
For an insurrection
I'll fight, I'll fight
For an insurrection
