Tearing beneath your feet
Feel the ground slip and crack, crumble beneath you
Calamity serves a nightmare
Never to wake from these dreams of destiny

All are buried
New earth's eyes turn black

Struggle to cling to your mind
Grasping at twines to hold your world together
Replacing the truth, breathe in the proof
And pray your god is forever

All are silent
Full with old dirt
All are stifled
Earth's hand turns to fist

Forget, erase, the monster you made
And the hate that you save
In time, you'll find
You'll learn to grow in the new world

Ushering in the sun
Barren earth smiles and greets it's warmth with awareness
Gathering clouds, earth drinks the rain
And plans the birth of its new godz

All arising
Purged of sickness
Soil transcending
Cast fulfilling

All are present
Born of earth, new godz
