[Intro]

Handle yours

Ey... life is a Personal Business

This here what I'm handlin', it's Personal Business

You handle your Business

Before I handle you, you heard me?

Val holla at 'em

[Chorus: Val Young]

Take care of your Personal Business

Don't never let the game catch you slippin'

Take care of your Personal Business

Don't let the game get you, it'll drive you insane

[Bad Azz]

This here life of mine down this one way street, it's so unpredictable

Tryin' to run into a dollar, drama all I seem to get into

Can't rewind time, so the problems that's mine -

It's either solve 'em, or deal with 'em tomorrow

Can't borrow, ain't got a job, money ain't circulatin'

Cops hot, spot dropped, so it ain't no work in yay

What's up? I'm thinkin' "Damn, I need a dollar"

I feel stuck and the hard times make me wanna holla

God help me out here, oh no, I'm with my last

Knowin' I can be the next to die, gone with the pass that

I don't wanna feel like real life's hard and live fake

Cause when they do me, ay, this ain't no movie, ain't no "take two"

You ever think about where your life gon' take you?

Ain't you - grateful to be alive?

Oh, you wanna die cause life hates you?

Don't let it take you, or make you, or break you

[Chorus: Val Young]

Take care of your Personal Business

Don't never let the game catch you slippin'

Take care of your Personal Business

Don't let the game get you, it'll drive you insane

[Bad Azz]

Oh yeah, the game'll get ya, hit ya hard and make ya fall

And leave ya broke with no hope and, no get back

Let's try hard to see success and not to stress and get there

You stay persistent long enough, you probably have shit where?

Everything you need'll be exactly where it need to be

To me the streets and peace are never seen in gleamin'

We - seemingly forgot about the kids doin' what we did

Caught up gettin' high, watchin' time go by

Now they wanna smoke and drink and ride on by

Catch a case, be at their place, and it's a long cold ride

Judge just gave Shorty Mack 1-0-5

And I doubt that he'll live to be a hundred and thirty-three

They try to tell him that he gon' die off in the penitentiary

He mentioned he - needed me to send him a package

I'ma shoot it to ya, man I know the game'll do it to ya

Yes it will like that (like that)

[Chorus: Val Young]

Take care of your Personal Business

Don't never let the game catch you slippin'

Take care of your Personal Business

Don't let the game get you, it'll drive you insane

[Bad Azz]

For me, it's been a long time comin' with a stretch up ahead

And I ain't scared but I don't wanna be dead

I caught the game tryin' to kill me and found out it's been several attempts

It hurts to know this shit gettin' so personal

It's worse as though you know you can't do nothin' about it

Least you know the world will never be crowded (ha ha ha ha)

The same thang that make you laugh'll make you cry

The same game that got you rich will make you die

Fuck the truth, we like livin' in a lie

It ain't no time to try to find my lost mind

I'm on the grind, I got rent, I need nickels and dimes

Would I be sent, and life is a personal business

Sell your service, not your soul if you ain't got no doe

Nah, I ain't tellin' you to go and try to sell your brain

If you ain't got you a scale and a barrel of 'caine

I'm just sayin', got to use what you got to get what you want

And most folks don't, I gotta handle mine
You better -

[Chorus: Val Young]

Take care of your Personal Business
Don't never let the game catch you slippin'
Take care of your Personal Business
Don't let the game get you, it'll drive you insane
