Law and order greets me warm
Do you believe in justice
Whenever they misjudge it
I can't complain of madness
Every day
I'm gathering your mind
Really big frustration
But the orders drift apart
Is this the price we pay
We call it our war
Like dim in smile reaction
Of a person
Who's supposed to say I like that
Ahead in slain
Your furry eyes up there
Lying is the part
You are a diaper
We call it our war by time
I'm here to tell you
We would not destroy
We call it our war
First time we're in rage
We're all the same
Like war'n'shit out of time
Friendship you're 19 - fright
Nation shit
You're a real star
I can't look out so straight
You gather in your mind
Oh a goddamn good sight
A reaction of a person
Who likes it
We're playing here
My eyes start watching
Violence destroys this place
We call it our war
First time we're in rage
Double education
It's time to get off frustration
We won't get up
No second change

Need a change
Don't need no break
Double education
It's time to get off frustration
The real one
The wrong side
I'm just smiling tonight
