My feet are tired, from my long journey,
My heart is heavy, with all my worries Devil at my heels,
My pockets full of seeds,
Life is too real
This is what I need to keep cruising

And then you take a deep breath, and you move your feet to the sound
And then you exhale real slow, and you move your feet
of the ground
Sing Ohh oh! Sing Ohh oh oh!
You take another deep breath, and now you're singin
out loud,
And then you exhale again, but you can't come down
down down down down,
Sing Ohh oh! Sing Ohh oh oh!

Long shadows on the ground, and the moon is bright,
I move without a sound, and stay out of sight,
River rushes by, THE water gives me speed, It brings me back to life, and nurtures my seeds to keep moving

And then you take a deep breath, and you move your
feet to the sound
And then you exhale real slow, and you move your feet
of the ground
Sing Ohh oh! Sing Ohh oh oh!
You take another deep breath, and now you're singin
out loud,
down down down down,
Sing Ohh oh! Sing Ohh oh oh!
