May our amens be true
May we be one in whole
What in the deeds of justice and the peace
Peace

Oh, when the morning opens our eyes
And we are faced with yesterday's blind
If we let happiness up high

May our amens be true
May we be one in whole
What in the deeds of justice and the peace
Peace

How many times do we pass it by?
Good time to decide, but let it ride
Picking up whatever fate brings by

May our amens be true
May we be one in whole
What in the deeds of justice and the peace
Peace
Peace
