In an earlier age Pandemonium - the first city of hell - stood on a Lave mountain while lightning tore the clouds above it and beacons
Burned on it's walls to summoning the fallen angels.
- Clive Barker, 'The Damnation Game' -
Travel through space
So ghostly
Withers the void;
The veil of spheres
My hands
They search for hold
World of spirits.
A sea of rooms, a forest of nothing
Where a soul wanders
Imploring for substance ...
Decipher
The Majesty
Leviathan.
