It was the first day of the dawn
That I woke up here alone
I missed your footsteps' on the floor
Is this what life becomes?

No coffee on the stove
And the bed we shared has gone cold
But your memory lingers still

I wish I could turn back the time
To when you were undoubtedly mine
Now these heartfelt words are just dying inside
Just waiting for you to come back to my life

We spoke for hours through the night
We didn't care about the time
But it all remains the same
That your not here with me today

No coffee on the stove
And the bed we shared has gone cold
But your memory lingers still

I wish I could turn back the time
To when you were undoubtedly mine
Now these heartfelt words are just dying inside

Just waiting for you
Just waiting for you

I wish I could turn back the time
To when you were undoubtedly mine
Now these heartfelt words are just dying inside

Just waiting for you
Just waiting for you
Just waiting for you

To come back to my life
