A New World

Old world has left in starvation and disease fourteen ninety-two bring a new change to see Across the ocean the would sail (following out the dark blaze)
They keep the route with an endless faith

[bridge:]
far beyond the earth's edge they will reach their dreams as a privilege sun still spreads out it dreams

[Chorus:]
With the winds of the sea always blowing from the east three boats dare to face just a will, a belief which could cross the deep abyss to discover a new world saving humanity

suddenly a joyful cry was heard in the avanced night the long awaited sight was seen below the sky

new treasures shine before my eyes

(they're bright like a burning fire)
I will enjoy the eternal sea of life

[Bridge]

[Chorus]

aventus nautarum in novan terram argentum aurumque America but they didn't know that this virgin ground was an unknown land that overgrows new Eden's found the lost paradise Mankind's dawn is beginning to rise this land is wild

Our boots were defiled Our dreams will be reality the native's pain always in vain our glory was their agony

But when Columbus told the queen all the thing he'd seen he had to submit and be agreed With kingdom's greed

[Chorus]
