When coming is the disaster
the Emperor masters the Emperor is always the master
the Emperor masters
when will must overrun faster the Emperor master

[bridge:]

The will is the law do not quit nor withdraw just the Emperor can lead to succeed the man encouraging him with force and power it is need to withstand by the strength of the hand all in this life is a violent strife

[chorus:]

When coming is the disaster
the Emperor master
when will must overrun faster
the Emperor master
the Emperor guards the order he is the inner warder he establishes firm the border
he is the inner warder

He has got the power to reinforce us to reach goals inside he is the father who controls he plays ever to win he has the might within he is who will make the rule when conquers the world in a bitter fray and holds on and leads the pain away he subdues and renews he restores the peace the Emperor absorbs the world in his orb everything is taken

[bridge]

It's written in his soul to obtain soon his goal

[chorus]

The Emperor wins.
