In everything I see you appear with me
How come? How come?
And everything I do involves you too
We are like one

In my life there has been so many changes
And I don't want to be left out in the rain

I don't wanna get hurt, I've done my time
All I want from you is to tell the truth
I don't wanna get hurt no more this time
I don't wanna go blind and find
It's falling apart all the time

In the middle of a dream
You are there for me, your face, your lips
But there's no way you can tell
'Cos I hide it really well, so well

In my life there has been lovin' and lyin'
And I don't need another reason to cry

I don't wanna get hurt, I've done my time
All I want from you is to tell the truth
I don't wanna get hurt no more this time
I don't wanna go blind and find
I'm falling apart one more time

I don't wanna get hurt, I've done my time
All I want from you is to tell the truth
I don't wanna get hurt no more this time
I don't wanna go blind and find
I'm falling apart one more time, yeah
One more time

(I don't wanna get hurt)
(I don't wanna get hurt)
I don't wanna get hurt
(I don't wanna get hurt)
I don't wanna get hurt
