I try to keep your name
And still get rid of your face
I hate to be by myself
All locked away in this place

You turn me inside out
You turn me outside in
Around and upside down
A rollercoaster within

Pay the price of love
When he calls for you, you've got to
Pay the price of love
When he calls for you

I grab my big black book
And call the numbers I know
Something is meltin' this town
Like it was all made of snow

You turn me inside out
You turn me outside in
Around and up and down
The elevator within

Pay the price of love
When he calls for you, you've got to
Pay the price of love
When he calls for you

Spendin' the evening alone
With the 10 o'clock news
Lookin' at you through the holes
In the soles of my old brown shoes

Pay the price of love
When he calls, he calls for you, you've got to
Pay the price of love
When he calls for you

Pay the price of love
Pay the price of love

Pay the price of love

Pay the price of love

Pay the price of love

Pay the price of love
