I was born in dixie in a boomeræŠˆ shack,
Just a little old shanty by a railroad track,
The hummin□ of the drivers was my lullaby,
And a freight train whistle taught me how to cry.

Chorus:

IæŠ³e got the freight train blues, lordy, lordy, lordy,
Got æŠ□m in the bottom of my ramblin□ shoes,
And when that whistle blows, IæŠ³e gotta go,
Oh! lordy! guess IæŠ! never gonna lose,
The mean old freight train blues.

Now my pappy was a fireman and my mammy dear,
Was the only daughter of an engineer,
My sister married a brakeman and it ainæŠ° no joke,
Now itæŠˆ a shame the way she keeps a good man broke.

Chorus:

IæŠ³e got the freight train blues, lordy, lordy, lordy,
Got æŠ□m in the bottom of my ramblin□ shoes,
And when the whistle blows, IæŠ³e gotta go,
Oh! lordy! guess IæŠ! never gonna lose,
The mean old freight train blues.
