Always the last one thought of
Never to be first on anyone's mind
Always taken for granted
Never thought that I'd be here...
Again

You took my heart
Without even knowing what you did
Then you broke me down
Without me even being on your mind

Anymore than a friend
No one can consider me
Any more than a friend
I'm the last one remembered

You said that I'm the best
A friend that will always last
You don't know it
But you just broke my heart
Like the rest

I'll try to keep the trust
That you feel you have in me
Try not to show the feelings
That I have for you

Anymore than a friend
No one can consider me
Any more than a friend
I'm the last one remembered

No matter what I do
No matter what I say
I'm only the one you run to
When there's no where else to go

Just the last one Remembered
