"Military Heart"

Everybody said that
No love could be strong enough
To put up with a man
So strong-willed and independent
But tell them this...

Chorus

Love doesn't judge
Truth doesn't hide
Strength doesn't matter
When you're layed out on the line
The promise of life is
The key to unlocking
A Military Heart

A baby girl
With her mother's trusting eyes
And her daddy's strong heart
He holds the future
And sees a new start

(CHORUS)

We all need to look around
At all the good we've got
And the force we have in ourselves
To defend what we love
Cause deep inside all of us
Beats a Military Heart
