I'm glad that you'll forgive me all the times I am wrong Yes, I don't know what in the world I do and someone else came along for you You made a stronger stuff than I so I know that you'd survive
There's something 'cause I love to end but darling how would I?

How would I live here in this big world all alone without you
With no one to care for me the way that you do What would I do with all this love I have to give to only
you
How would I live with myself without you?

--- Instrumental ---

It don't even seem fair for you to have such power over me
But I had nothing to do with the fact that you are the reason I am me So darlin' let me apologize I'm puttin' all the responsibility on you But if someone took your love from me well they have to take me too.

How would I live here in this big world all alone without
you
With no one to care for me the way that you do
What would I do with all this love I have to give to only
you
How would I live with myself without you?

Now how would I live with myself without you?...
