It's over nobody wins.

Well, it doesn't matter who's right or wrong
We've been hurting each other for much too long
And it's too late to try to save what might have been It's over nobody wins.

Make believing in forever is just a line
And it seems a little sadder each time we try
'Cause it's a shame to make the same mistakes again and again
It's over nobody wins.

We've gone too far too long too far apart
The loving was easy it's the living that's hard
For there's no need to stay to see the way it ends
It's over nobody wins. (nobody wins...)
