"So Let There Be Love"

Visit "So Let There Be Love" on MotoLyrics.com

God gave me this moment, moon shines above
And gave me a heart, so let there be love
Two arms to enfold you, Two eyes for to see God gave me to you, He gave you to me
Why waste precious moments, why shed precious tears?
Why lose precious hours, why waste precious years?
See, see, see, see
God gave me this moment, moon shines above
God gave me a heart, so let there be love
Why lose precious hours, why waste precious years?
God gave me this moment, moon shines above
God gave me a heart, so let there be love
