Iâ€™ve been waiting for answers to questions in my mind
Iâ€™ve been waiting on so long Itâ€™s like riding double on horses through river beds gone dry that were running for so long If you could read my mind in the dead of night would you become a prisoner of my mind And if the morning comes with the break of dawn would you look at me and wanna stay, or walk away...

Iâ€™ve been wasted and wasted my time when it came time to recognize your Love But now Iâ€™m lonely if only the loneliness would pass I could take you by the hand If we could make it last without the past would you become the flower of my soul And when the morning comes with the scent of you lingering on the scents of my soul, please donâ€™t go...

Iâ€™ve been waiting for answers to questions in my mind
Iâ€™ve been waiting on so long
Itâ€™s like riding double on horses through river beds
gone dry that were running for so long
They were running for so long Woo running for so long Weâ€™ve been running for so long
