I've got a lot of memories to last me the rest of my life
So if you don't want to love me, well baby, that'll be alright
I'm gonna take all the lovin' that I had for you Gonna take all the loneliness and sit right down with the blues

Gonna give myself a party, serve old memories
I'll give myself a party, think of how it used to be Remember all the happiness that we once knew
I'll give myself a party, just me and the blues

A few of your love letters, a photograph or two The gift you gave me on my birthday with words of I love you
There's lots of things to think about when you're happy being blue I'm gonna take all the heartache and sit right down with
the blues

Remember all the happiness that we once knew
I'll give myself a party, just me and the blues
