Going back to Gloria, the girl I'm dreaming of
Going back to Gloria, Gloria, my love

Forget about the letters that I wrote to you
Forget about the many things we used to do
I don't want you to cry, but I must say goodbye
So long you're on your own
Going home, going back to Gloria

Going back to Gloria, the girl I'm dreaming of
Going back to Gloria, Gloria my love

I'll keep on pretending that I never cared
And every time we'll meet, I'll act like you're not there
I will write no more letters, I'll make no more calls
I can't meet you anymore
Going home, going back to Gloria

Going back to Gloria, going back to Gloria, Gloria
Going back to Gloria, the girl I'm dreaming of Going back to Gloria, Gloria, my love, Gloria, my love
