"I Give Up"

I'm losin my mind completely from you telling lies so sweetly breaking my heart too neatly
I give up

You told me that you once loved me and you placed yourself above me now I know you never loved me
I give up

I give up I'm through with trying
I give up I'm through with your lying
I give up I'm through with you
I give up I've done all I can do

I don't want to share tommorrow

I don't want your love to borrow my life is filled with sorrow
I give up

I give up I'm through with trying
I give up I'm through with your lying
I give up I'm through with you
I give up I've done all I can do

I don't want to share tommorrow
my life is filled with sorrow
I don't want your love to borrow
I give up
