Crazy heart, your baby's gone
Don't you know?
Empty arms give up, give up
Come on let go

And maybe, I will be alright
And maybe, I'll get through tonight
Then maybe, I will see you tomorrow

Misty eyes
Don't see that face in every tear
Longing lips
Don't speak that name, there's no one here

And maybe, I will see the dawn
And maybe, I'll get by alone
Then maybe, I will lose my sorrow

In a hundred years trough a million tears
Maybe, maybe
Maybe, I'll be loving you

And maybe when my life is through
Then maybe, I'll get over you
Maybe, maybe, maybe
