

Roy Orbison

"She Won't Hang Her Love Out (On The Line)"

Visit "She Won't Hang Her Love Out \(On The Line\)" on MotoLyrics.com

She come from Kansas City, lookin' mighty pretty She's as sweet as Kansas City wine
Oh, it's such a pity, she won't wanna kiss me
She won't hang her love out on the line
No, she won't hang her love out on the line

A mystery to me, she's not what you see
She's a strong, mighty woman who loves to disagree
If I could just talk to her
I know that I could fool her
But she won't hang her love out on the line

She don't care for nothin' she holds onto her lovin'
I wonder if she'd ever change her mind?
I'll fall in behind her, hopin' that I find her
When she hangs her love out on the line
When she hangs her love out on the line

A mystery to me, she's not what you see

She's a strong, mighty woman who loves to disagree
If I could just talk to her
I know that I could fool her
But she won't hang her love out on the line

I'd take her lovin', I'd take her lovin'
I'd take her lovin' anytime
I want her lovin', I need her lovin'
but she won't hang her love out on the line
she won't hang her love out on the line
she won't hang her love out on the line
No, she won't hang her love out on the line
she won't hang her love out on the line

Visit Roy Orbison page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.