I'm sorry, that you're sorry and tried
You gotta go
Come visit, next May
When there are flowers and no more snow

But we all want things we don't need
Yea, we all want things we don't need

Shall we avoid this topic
That we must figure out where to live
And later we'll discuss everything unsaid
I'll try as you scoff
Don't try to catch me, my plane has taken off

I often wish that you could have stayed
That you hadn't crashed my car and run away

But we all want things we don't need
Yea, we all want things we don't need

Shall we avoid this topic
That we must figure out where to live
And later we'll discuss everything unsaid
I'll try as you scoff
Don't try to catch me, my plane has taken off

I try to tell myself that livin' in a shoe it's normal, it's normal
I try to tell myself that bein' blue it's normal, yea it's normal
I'm not normal, that's not normal

Though we all want things we don't need
Yea, we all want things we don't need

Shall we avoid this topic
That we must figure out where to live
And later we'll discuss everything unsaid
I'll try as you scoff
Don't try to catch me, don't try to catch me, my plane has taken off

My plane has taken
