As the swift bird flies o'er the mountain,
How we wish we were there at his wing,
Closer by far to a friend we have lost;
We remember the King.

We remem (we remem) ber the King.
We recall (we recall) everything.
We will treasure all of the gifts that he did bring,
We remember the King.

And when shadows fall in the valley,
To that precious memory we cling.
Like a spark that ignites,
And his flame still shines bright

As we remember the King

We remem (we remem) ber the King.
We recall (we recall) everything.
We will treasure all of the gifts that he did bring,
We remember the King.

We remem (we remem) ber the King.
We recall (we recall) everything.
We will treasure all of the gifts that he did bring,
We remember the King.
