Tell me that this is my mistake and you're not Telling me that this is the end, no I hope not
And you are burning me inside
Things that I've never meant to say I told you
Things that you wanted me to say, I never did
And this is burning me inside

I'll try to leave this behind
I'll try to leave you afar

Would you disappear
To where you've never been before
I just can't let you be here no more
And I'm not stopping you here
So just disappear

Taken me down and let me drown
I should've taken you down with me
And all the things we share
Lets just burn it all in sight

I'll try to leave this behind
I'll try to leave you afar

Would you disappear
To where you've never been before
I just can't let you be here no more
And I'm not stopping you here
So just disappear

Would you disappear
To where you've never been before
I just can't let you be here no more
And I'm not stopping you here

Would you disappear
To where you've never been before
I just can't let you be here no more
And I'm not stopping you here
So just disappear
