RPWL Lyrics

Believe Me

Looking for the answers
That a dreamer needs to know
Who's gonna wake me when it's over
Far away from home
You're not the only reason
Although sometimes I'm not sure
How I can stand a single day without you

Believe me
I'm not the only one you are waiting for

Please come a little closer
So strange to hear you on the phone
To feel the warmth together without gaining our end
Lost and found
Far away from home

Believe me
I'm not the only one you are waiting for
