You don't answer when I'm calling you
Doesn't seem there is anything I can do
We should be happy after all we've been through
What d'ya mean I'm not into your life
'Cause I'm always coming home late at night
I don't think you know what you mean

Ooh Baby it's a good day to run away, far away
Ooh Baby it's a good day to run away

The life I'm living is not much of what you know
The place I am is not the place for you to go
You know I didn't mean to hurt you so much!

What do you think of how it used to be?
Was it love that you wanted to see?
I think the best thing is you better get away now.

Send me an angel
That sings a song that makes me smile again
Send me an angel
