"What I Need, : What I Need"

I know why you're leaving
I never meant to be the way your thought
Side by side
Was it your hand holding mine?
The warmth still coming
Radiating through the sheets for me
Your love as a beacon
Retreating to an endless summer sea

I don't know what I'm fighting for
What I'm living for
You don't know what I need
Why we're looking for the meaning of our life
Laughing as it passes
You don't know what I mean

I see the window ledge
Falling far behind
I hope this really was
The thing you had in mind
Did I closed the window
It seems it's gonna be
A rainy day again
