"Can't Leave Without A Good-bye"

I'm about to leave the city
But the person I want to see before I go is gone
I don't want to leave
But it's for the best
If I leave
I won't rest until
I say good-bye
For the last time

I'm going away!
About 3, 000 miles
I wish I could stay to see your beautiful smile
My heart is achin'
My legs are shakin'
My nerves are tremblin'
My strength is weakenin'
I just can't leave
Without a final good-bye
Without a final good-bye

I promise I will never Forget
The times we've spent together
I will never Regret it
I need to say good-bye

I'm about to leave the city
But the person I see before I go never came
