Look up in the sky
Up to one who knows
There are three new stars
Brightly shining forth
They're shining so bright
From Heaven above
Gee we're gonna miss you
Everybody sends their love

On the left stands Ritchie Valens
A young boy
Just seventeen
Just beginning to realize and explore
All his teenage dreams
Why did God call him
Oh so far away
Maybe to help some boy or girl who Might have gone astray

With his star shining
Through the dark and lonely night
To light the path
And show the way
The way that's right

Gee we're gonna miss you
Everybody sends their love

On the right stands Buddy Holly
With a shy grin on his face
Funny how you always seem to notice that
One little curl out of place
Not many people really knew Buddy or Understood how he felt
But just a song from his lips
Would make the coldest heart melt

Buddy's singing for God now and
His chorus in the sky
Buddy Holly we'll always remember you
With tears in our eyes

Gee we're gonna miss you
Everybody sends their love

In the middle stands a stout man
The Big Bopper is his name
Now God has called him
Perhaps to new fortune and fame
He wore a big Stetson hat
And sort of rambled up to the mike
And how can we ever forget those wonderful words
You know what I like

Look up in the sky
Up to one who knows
There are three new stars
Brightly shining forth
Gee we're gonna miss you
