Svaprakasham tamatmanam aprakashah katham sprshet

Ahamasmi sadabhami kadachinam apriyam Brahmaivaham atah siddham
satchidanandalakshanam

Riding the waves of Maya but seeing Brahman everywhere
Surfing the waves of duality but witnessing non-duality

Universe which is inert has no independent existence
All of it depends on consciousness for it's existence

Ahmasmai sadabhami kadachinam apriyam
Brahmaivaham atah siddham

The world appears like a mirage but it is not an illusion At the dawn of knowledge I see the world like a reflection
In the mirror of consciousness

In my consciousness the universe rises
My consciousness is all that becomes the world
Of names and forms

Svaprakasham tamatmanam aprakashah katham
sprshet

In the primordial sleep of ignorance the Self Assumes the form of heavens and hells Pain, pleasure, body and mind rise to destroy freedom as it were

Ahmasmai sadabhami kadachinam apriyam
Brahmaivaham atah siddham
satchidanandalakshanam
