

Rudra

"Natural Born Ignorance"

Visit "Natural Born Ignorance" on MotoLyrics.com

This Adhyasa is Avidya Worshipping the creator whose existence is devoid of reason
This in itself is caused by the natural born Avidya

Fools worship the nameless and formless with a name Who kill for pleasures in heaven, none has seen

In him passions are unquelled
He sees his lord separate from the world and himself His beliefs sanctify his weakness of mind, he seeks a place free from Limitations when what limits is his ignorance
By seeking the eternal he becomes an eternal sufferer

Psychos who self-create a playground for their inadequacy Their halo of thorns fools many who become blind after gaining sight

It is the strong who can survive the temptation to do the lord's work Those monuments we worship in blindness kill us every second

Itishvarac ca nryate srashttrve paramatmani Svamibhrtyadibhedopi nakhandaciti drshyate

In the name of your lord, the meek shall inherit the weak
In the name of your god, the strong shall become the meek
In the name of your almighty, grace becomes divine disgrace For once in the name of your Self! Destroy this delusion!

Visit Rudra page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.