a gentle rain came down on all falling down upon the world washing away our sins
tears that cleanse the soul and soothe the pain
rain of revival

running down my skin
no past's survival
remaining in my heart
rain of revival
remembrance washed away
my past's denial
i'm challenging the day
i'm sailing on the sea of change conquering new lands coasts of new adventures unknown tasks, unknown fears better than remaining here i'll leave the world behind
rain of revival

will you join my walk
to new dimensions
i'll take your hand
to change your life
