"Requiem"

near autumn walls I'm seeking shadows dark fears - an anthem of this time damnation - the dreamers heart overflown with purple red melancholia of a dying world follows my step as I walk a stranger on the graveyard towards the black swords of lie dreaming they rise from dark eons decayed men black gates effuse dying angels with cold brows dark rooms senseless bony hands

tortured blue unholy child rat naws doorway heart stone sad cold fever halls purple death darkness emotion hunger condemned fouling darkness

swords of lie
garden of orphans unholy grave
red barchetta on the channel life

lost life gained death is the feeling in my heart as I cross the riversedge then my spirit will be set free
